Most people spend at least 80,000 hours of their lives working but does our work matter to God? Are your faith and work separated or integrated?

Gain practical wisdom on workplace challenges and explore what it means to be a fruitful follower of Jesus in the workplace.

Keynote speaker:
Mark Greene, LICC

Plus resource stands, networking and seminars on a range of topics including work-life balance, kingdom ethics and faith in the workplace.

Who is Mark Greene?

Mark is the Executive Director of the London Institute for Contemporary Christianity (LICC) and is a champion for mission in everyday contexts. Mark used to work in advertising and is prepared to admit it.

He speaks widely and has also written a number of books and resources including Thank God it's Monday, The Great Divide, the ground-breaking Imagine - How we can reach the UK and Fruitfulness on the Frontline which has a supporting DVD resource for small groups.

LOVEWORK | aims to help Christians integrate their faith & their work
