

Sometimes a picture says it all

We had a great evening at our recent quiz night with mentees and mentors enjoying an evening of friendly (but serious) competition.

Huge thanks to Ebenezer Church for lending us their building, and their church leader Stewart, who, with Esther kept the questions coming thick and fast - even the dodgy ones!

The proud winning team - the Magnificent Six

One of Sixty-One's ambitions is to enable communities to form that make real the love of God in a totally unconditional way. If you are not already part of this, but would like to be, let us know.

info@sixty-one.org