

Life Course Group Facilitator - Part Time (30 hours per week)

Relatable – People-Focused – Empathetic – Approachable – Clear Communicator - Adaptable – Organised

Do some of the words above describe you? Could you use your experience in recovery support and group facilitation to help people strengthen their resilience, find community, and build hope for the future? inHope is recruiting a Group Facilitator to lead our Life Course, which helps people to live well in their recovery from addiction and mental illness.

As a Life Course Group Facilitator, you will:

- Deliver inHope's Life Course programme, supporting clients in their recovery journey.
- Facilitate group sessions, creatively utilising InHope's Life course materials.
- Facilitate post-course activities to help clients move towards meaningful occupation, volunteering, training, or employment.
- Work collaboratively with our Client Pathways team and external agencies to create strong referral pathways.
- Provide Psychologically and Trauma-Informed support while maintaining accurate records to measure impact.
- Foster a safe and encouraging space where clients can grow in skills, confidence, community and faith.
