

Children and Families Music and Outreach Officer

St. Mary's Church, Fishponds, Bristol

Hours: Full time, 37.5 hours per week

Part time and job-share applications may also be considered. (Please let us know the hours and parts of the role in which you would be interested.)

Contract: Fixed term to 31 December 2028

Salary: £27,000 to £30,000 FTE p.a. (depending on qualifications or experience).

Do you have a passion to use your musical abilities to build and grow transformational relationships with children, families and their communities?

Do you share our vision and enthusiasm for children and families to meet Jesus in a variety of ways, and especially through music?

Are you a people-person, a well-organised self-starter who wants to be part of a wider, committed team?

Yes? Then we would love to hear from you!

St Mary's, Fishponds has a vision to create a parish where children and young people have the opportunity to experience the transformational power of music. With a focus on the primary school age group of 5-11s, we want to enhance and encourage their experience of God in the local parish church and within their community, so that they can reach their potential as musical faith citizens.

This post is funded via the Priority Communities Network (PCN) until 31 December 2028.
