

Digital Fundraising Officer (30 hours per week)

Creative – Organised – Storyteller – Digital-Savvy – Faith-Led – Communicator – Supporter-Focused

Do some of the words above describe you? Could you use your digital skills and creativity to inspire people to support those facing homelessness and hunger? Could your storytelling, communication and fundraising skills help grow awareness, engagement and support for inHope's work across Bristol?

We're looking for an organised and creative Digital Fundraising Officer to join our Income and People Team. This new role will deliver inHope's digital communications and fundraising activity, helping grow supporter engagement, online income and awareness of inHope's mission, enabling our Christian ministry to people experiencing homelessness, food poverty and other life-disrupting challenges.

You'll help supporters connect with inHope through engaging content, compelling storytelling and impactful fundraising campaigns. From creating social media and website content, to supporter e-newsletters, digital fundraising and online campaigns, you'll play a key role in helping people understand the difference their support makes.
