

Church and Community Fundraising Officer (Full Time)

Relational – Organised – Inspiring – Faith-Led – Communicator – Motivated – Community-Focused

Do some of the words above describe you? Could you inspire churches, schools and local communities to support people experiencing homelessness and hunger? Could your skills help build meaningful relationships, grow fundraising and strengthen awareness of inHope's work across Bristol?

We're looking for an enthusiastic and relational Church and Community Fundraising Officer to join our Income and People Team. This new role will inspire supporters to raise funds through church and community focused activities, events and campaigns.

You'll build strong relationships with churches, schools, community groups and individuals, equipping them to engage with inHope's mission through fundraising, events and learning opportunities. Whether delivering talks, supporting coffee mornings and sleepouts, developing fundraising resources or encouraging peer-to-peer fundraising, you'll help supporters feel connected to the difference they are making.

This role combines relationship building, communication, organisation and practical delivery. You'll work collaboratively across inHope, helping to grow support, increase participation and strengthen awareness of the charity's mission and impact.

Further information about this role and the Job Description are available via our website: www.inhope.uk/get-involved/work-with-us. To discuss this role, or find out more, please contact steve.baker@inhope.uk

There is an Occupational Requirement for this role to be filled by a practicing Christian. Our Statement of Faith, Vision and Values and our Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy are available upon request and online at www.inhope.uk.
