St Andrew's Hartcliffe, Bristol, is looking for a pioneering leader to build relationships with children and young families, develop our growing ministry, and create new pathways for people across our estate to encounter Jesus. Here's an introduction to our church and our vision:

If you're passionate about families, discipleship, multigenerational church and reaching communities with the hope of the gospel, and sense that God may be calling you to this role, we'd love to hear from you.

Join us as we help write the next chapter of St Andrew's story.
